THE VIRGIN OF STAMBOUL

Tremendous moments in this picture will loom up in your memory for years to come—the murder in the mosque, the dash of the Arabian Black Horse Troop across the desert, the fight in the streets of Stamboul, the dagger duel in the sheik's harem.

Don't fail to see the harems, slave girls, favorites, adventures, battles, Bedouins, Turks, camels, sheiks, hookahs, in this gorgeous, mysterious romance. Now playing.

NEARING FINALS IN OGDEN GOLF

Mrs. Maule Takes Women's Cup; Title Matches Played Next Week-end

Playing at the Ogden Golf and Country club yesterday, the Bigelow cup was won for the third time in two years by Mrs. Maule, and in all probability the winner will keep it permanently. In the president's cup contest, the finals are to be played off as follows:

W. F. Rudiger vs W. Arthur.
Mrs. A. P. Bigelow vs Mrs. M. Browning.
The first matches for the club and class championships were played off and the next matches are to be fought out as follows:

Championship class—G. H. Reinks vs P. T. Wright, W. Arthur vs A. Gilck.
Class B—C. B. Green vs W. B. Felt, F. W. Baker vs H. W. Dunn.
Class C—R. Kimball vs W. V. Rockefeller, R. C. Williams vs H. M. Rowe.

Class D—C. A. Day vs S. M. Scott.
The committee asks that these matches be played off before next Saturday in order that these matches be finished Saturday and Sunday.

The above contests will complete the program for the 1920 season with the exception of the annual contest between the Reds and Blues for the fall duck dinner. This will be played on Saturday and Sunday, October 2 and 3.

RUSSIAN ARRESTED SOON AFTER BLAST WINS HIS RELEASE

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The police announced today release of Alexander Bralovsky, Russian journalist detained after he had admitted he was near the scene of the explosion soon after it occurred. The department of justice denied reports that Bralovsky had been turned over to them. Both local and federal authorities declared they had found there was no evidence on which to hold the Russian.

OFFERED A LIFT, MAN KILLS DRIVER AND STEALS AUTO

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 20.—C. J. Liebers, a salesman, was shot and killed by an unidentified assailant near Henderson, Colo., 12 miles from here today. A farmer's wife who saw the shooting said Liebers had taken a pedestrian into his car and that the latter shot him and threw him into a ditch. The assailant drove towards Denver.

MARTENS FIGHTS DEPORTATION AIMS OF U. S. OFFICIALS

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, unrecognized "ambassador" from soviet Russia, appeared today before immigration officials at Ellis Island for a final hearing as to whether he be deported to Russia. The hearing was suddenly adjourned this afternoon subject to the call of the government. It was announced that the government had rested and the case is closed unless Martens and his lawyers bring in further testimony which may require evidence in rebuttal. The hearing was behind closed doors.

"I can only say," John Hoover, government counsel said, "that we believe that we have made out a strong case against Martens and that he is easily subject to deportation under the anti-radical act of October 16, 1918."

OKLAHOMA MERCHANTS FACE PROFITEER CHARGES

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 20.—Judge John H. Cottrell, in United States district court here today ruled a demurrer entered in the case of A. C. Bowke, a merchant of Ardmore, Okla., charged under the lever act with profiteering.

M. Peck, United States district attorney, will pave the way for bringing to trial seven other Oklahoma merchants indicted on May 18 on sugar profiteering charges.

Certain-teed Roofing Costs Less to Lay

You will appreciate the low cost and convenience of laying Certain-teed Roofing.

Skilled labor is not required to lay it properly. You save much of the expense of hiring trained workmen and avoid delays because of a scarcity of such men.

But this is only one of the Certain-teed economies. It also costs less to buy and less to maintain than any other type of good roofing. In addition, Certain-teed roofing is weather-proof, fire-retarding and spark-proof. It is guaranteed for five, ten or fifteen years, according to weight. Experience proves that it usually outlasts its guarantee by years of satisfactory service.

See your dealer about Certain-teed Roofing. If he can't fill your entire order from stock, he can get what you want quickly from a nearby Certain-teed distributing center.

All Available Men and Guns Gathered for Offensive Against Poles

WARSAW, Sept. 20.—(By the Associated Press).—The Russians are concentrating heavy forces along the Niemen river beyond the Polish northern front preparatory to an offensive which is expected to be begun within a few days, according to military attaches who have been at the front for several days past.

The soviet commanders have brought up all the available artillery, airplanes, tanks and other apparatus of warfare, and, according to reports reaching allied officers, Leon Trotsky, the soviet minister of war has arrived at Lida, to the south of Vilna to direct the operation.

ITALIAN PREMIER WORKS TO END LABOR TROUBLE

ROME, Sept. 20.—Delegates of Italian employees informed Premier Giolitti today they were unable to approve his formula for reaching a settlement of the controversy with their workmen, but would submit it to the premier, replied that he would assume full responsibility for imposing his plan, and later issued a decree making formal announcement of his action.

Efforts were made earlier in the day to reconcile opposing points of view regarding the premier's plan. This meeting adjourned and then delegates of the employers and workmen held separate conferences. Most of the joint conference was taken up with consideration of the question of dismissal of workers.

MINERS' 'VACATION' ENDS; MAY START NEW TROUBLE

HAZLETON, Pa., Sept. 20.—The "vacation" strike of the anthracite mine workers was virtually ended today in the Hazleton district. Many collieries, however, were crippled by short forces.

Thousands of miners in the Shamokin district, remained on "vacation," declaring they would not report for work until the fire bosses and monthly men who quit in sympathy with the miners were reinstated.

It is reported that an attempt may be made to bring about another suspension throughout the hard coal region to force reinstatement of the "sympathy" strikers.

GERMAN WHO POSED AS ARMY OFFICER SENTENCED

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Theodore Schudd, German arrested at the Hotel San Francisco, several weeks ago pleaded guilty today to obtaining $1,600 from the government under false pretenses while posing as Lieut. Arthur Kinchaid, an American army officer. Judge George Carpenter sentenced Schudd to three years in Leavenworth prison.

Schudd, who was detected when a photograph of himself in a German officer's uniform was found among his effects, claimed he obtained Lieut. Kinchaid's papers in Germany after the armistice and was returned to America and discharged at Fort Sheridan, Ill., as Kinchaid, receiving the back pay due the real lieutenant. Kinchaid later was sent home and was discharged at Camp Taylor, Ky., where he also collected $1,600 from the government.

WHELP WASTE.
"Judge," wailed Mrs. Speed, "I simply must have a divorce. My husband is a perfect brute."
"What's he done?" queried his honor.

"Why, the other morning he went and paid the rent, and there's another installment due on the c-c-car next week," wailed the betrayed wife.—The American Legion Weekly.
